

QUEENSTOWN TO CHRISTCHURCH EXCLUSIVELY

Private Tour to/from QTN to CHC via Mt Cook

SUGGESTED ITINERARY

Queenstown – Mt Cook – Christchurch

- 8:30am: Your driver-guide from Limousine South will pick you up from your hotel.
- The tour begins with a scenic drive through the spectacularly rugged Kawarau gorge. The mighty Kawarau river follows the road through precipitous bluffs and rock strewn hillsides.
- Cromwell sits in the true heart of the Central Otago wine and fruit-growing region. A quick stop at one of the local fruit stalls is a must.
- Travelling along the shores of Lake Dunstan into the Lindis country one gets a sense of just how remote and sparsely populated the area is.
- Past Omarama the first of two large alpine fed lakes appears into view with Mount Cook, or Aoraki as it is known to the local Maori, forming an impressive back drop.
- Lunch at the Hermitage Hotel, Mount Cook. Several lunch options are available (buffet or café)
- Optional activity: Scenic flight with Mount Cook Ski Planes. (Weather dependant)
- The journey continues through the Mackenzie Country and down onto the fertile Canterbury Plains.
- Arrival into Christchurch, the Garden City and New Zealand's second largest city. a brief orientation tour of the city centre.
- Drop off at hotel by late afternoon.
- End of services.
