

AKAROA EXCLUSIVELY FULL DAY

Private sightseeing tour - Black Cat Cruise

A journey exploring the many delightful inlets and coves of Akaroa Harbour and a chance to see one of the worlds smallest and most endangered dolphins in its natural habitat.

TOUR ITINERARY

- Your morning departure from Christchurch begins with a scenic drive to the West onto the Banks Peninsula with its lush rolling hills and small farmlets.
- Refreshment stop at the famous Little River Store, stocked full with curiosities, organic produce and local art works.
- Today's destination is the delightful township of Akaroa, settled by French seafarers back in the 1700's and now days the perfect spot for a relaxing lunch or a browse through the many interesting craft shops.
- Optional: Black Cat cruise to see the outer harbour and get up close and personal with the Hector Dolphins that inhabit the bay.
- Return to Christchurch with a stop at Barry's Bay cheesery for a taste of locally produced cheese.
