

QUEENSTOWN PHOTOGRAPHY TOUR

Half Day Private Tour

Queenstown, Coronet Peak, Arrowtown, Kawarau Bridge & Crown Range

Queenstown and the Southern Lakes District of South Island, New Zealand boasts some of the worlds most dramatic scenery. It is a true paradise for budding and experienced landscape photographers. Our photography guides know all the best locations, will choose the right times of the day and are happy to share their extensive knowledge to guarantee you'll take some of the best photos of your trip.

SUGGESTED ITINERARY

- Pick up from your accommodation and the first stop is the Fernhill view-point overlooking Queenstown Bay and Lake Wakatipu. The Remarkables mountain range forms the perfect back-drop for this photo.
- A short drive down to the Lakefront Esplanade to capture the morning sailing of the TSS Earnslaw, framed against the Botanical Gardens as she steams out of Queenstown Bay.
- Head north as the road climbs up to Coronet Peak where a sweeping vista of the Wakatipu Basin unfolds before you. Just up the hill Skippers Canyon saddle reveals another intriguing landscape.
- Travel down from Coronet Peak and on to historic Arrowtown village.
- Travelling east our next stop is the Kawarau River. This section of the river was used in the first Lord of the Rings film.
- Time permitting we head back to Queenstown via the Crown Terrace and up onto the Crown Range where we are rewarded with another sweeping vista of the Wakatipu Basin.
